

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 8:8-13;9:1-2

Brethren, food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. Only take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if any one sees you, a man of knowledge, at table in an idol's temple, might he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? And so by your knowledge this weak man is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. Thus, sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of my brother's falling, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to fall. Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Matthew 25:31-46

The Lord said, "When the Son of man comes in his glory and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.' And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

My Dear Beloved Youth,

We have recently concluded the first major feast days of the New Year January 1st, St. Basil the Great and on January 6th, the Feast of Epiphany (the manifestation of the Holy Trinity at Christ's baptism). We read in the Gospel of St. Mark that God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit appeared at Jesus' baptism. As we continue through the New Year and progress in our growth and knowledge of our Lord let us continue to write a new page with words of hope, of love and of self-control and continue to make room to receive God, as He appeared to us. Hope makes all things work and love makes all these things beautiful. His appearance renews and transforms us, making us children of the most high God by entering into communion with Him through the mysteries of the church—the Holy Eucharist, the Blood and Body of Christ. Continue in your efforts to attend worship services and Sunday School so the fruits of your faith will make all things possible. Please let me know if there is anything you need and if I can be of help in your continued journey through the New Year and always.

God bless,
Rev. Fr. Elias Koucos

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM FATHER MATTHEW

GREAT LENT BEGINS FEBRUARY 23

The message of Saint John the Baptist was one of repentance in preparation for the Kingdom of Heaven. The first words of Christ were exactly the same: "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand". So the faithful are repeatedly exhorted to repent that they might be found worthy of a place in His Kingdom. This is particularly shown in the extra striving required in the four fasting periods, and especially during Great Lent which begins in one week.

As you know, I have been encouraging all parish families -- young and old -- to schedule time during the upcoming Lenten period to see me, your priest and spiritual father in this parish, for the SACRAMENT OF HOLY CONFESSION! I could not ask this of you if I, myself, ignored this absolutely necessary and soul-saving sacrament. I, too, confess to my spiritual father regularly throughout the year. So I humbly ask you not to postpone it today, for our Lord does not guarantee us tomorrow. Please call me.

UPCOMING LENTEN SERVICES

You may ask, "How can one face the many personal problems and difficulties of today, whether in the family, on the job, or in society in general?" Perhaps your burdens have become greater than your ability to cope with them, an experience faced by many people today. Facing all of these burdens alone would certainly be overwhelming, but bringing our struggles to Christ enables us to overcome them. One important way of bringing our hearts and our struggles to Christ is by partaking in the services of our Holy Orthodox Church. The Lenten season affords us many opportunities to do so. Below are just a few of the many services that will be offered:

Saturday, February 21: 2nd Saturday of the Souls, Orthros and Divine Liturgy beginning at 8:30am at both churches;

Sunday, February 22: Vespers of Forgiveness immediately following Divine Liturgy at both churches;

Monday, February 23: Compline Service, 6pm at Prophet Elias only;

Tuesday, February 24: Service of the Great Canon, 9am at Holy Trinity only;

Wednesday, February 25: Presanctified Liturgy, 9am at Prophet Elias only;

Thursday, February 26: Service of the Great Canon, 9am at Holy Trinity only;

Friday, February 27: 1st Salutations to the Theotokos, 6:30pm at both churches;

Saturday, February 28: 3rd Saturday of the Souls, Orthros and Divine Liturgy beginning at 8:30am at both churches

Sunday, March 1: Sunday of Orthodoxy Vespers, 6pm at Prophet Elias only

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

JOIN US! We will meet on Tuesday, February 17 at 10:30am at Little America in the room by the reservation desk in the coffee shop. We are continuing our enlightening and wonderful study of the BOOK OF REVELATION.

LOOKING AHEAD...

GODPARENT SUNDAY at PROPHET ELIAS will be held on Sunday, March 8! Our Holy Church Fathers remind us that we must instruct our children in Orthodox Christian life from the day they are born by our example, in our every thought, word, and deed and that Sunday Liturgy is a culmination of all of the prayer and worship that take place in the home during the week.

Dear Parishioners,

Enclosed is a current list of stewards for the 2015 year. If your name is not on this list and you have made a stewardship commitment, please contact the church office at 801-328-9681. If you have not made a stewardship commitment, please do your part to help in the financial ministry of our community and our Orthodox Church. Our parish has many expenses and the help of everyone is required to keep us a vibrant community and to help spread Orthodoxy.

A steward is someone who has been entrusted with another's property and charged with the responsibility of managing it in the owner's best interest. So for us, stewardship is the act of lovingly returning to God a portion of His many gifts with which He has blessed each of us. Stewardship is a ministry that enables us to respond to Christ's love by perpetuating His Church's mission. Our giving of time, talent and treasure enables our parish to do Christ's work here on Earth through our many ministries, services and outreach programs.

If you haven't already, please make your stewardship commitment today or, if possible, increase your commitment with thanks to God.
Stewardship payments can be made on our website at gocslc.org, the Narthex, or the church office.

In His Name and Service
