

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's First Letter to the Hebrews 1:10-14;2:1-3

"IN THE BEGINNING, Thou, Lord, didst found the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of thy hands; they will perish, but thou remainest; they will all grow old like a garment, like a mantle thou wilt roll them up, and they will be changed. But thou art the same, and thy years will never end." But to what angel has he ever said, "Sit at my right hand, till I make thy enemies a stool for thy feet?" Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to serve, for the sake of those who are to obtain salvation?

Therefore we must pay closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. For if the message declared by angels was valid and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Mark 2:1-12

At that time, Jesus entered Capernaum and it was reported that he was at home. And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, not even about the door; and he was preaching the word to them. And they came, bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him; and when they had made an opening, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic lay. And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "My son, your sins are forgiven." Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, "Why does this man speak thus? It is a blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you question thus in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your pallet and walk? But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins'-he said to the paralytic-"I say to you, rise, take up your pallet and go home." And he rose, and immediately took up the pallet and went out before them all; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Thank you for your cooperation.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

OUR LENTEN JOURNEY...

...is an invitation, a call to something greater, more beautiful and more fulfilling than anything our ordinary experience can offer. It is an appeal, made by God Himself, for us to soften our hearts and to embrace the call to shine as lights in the darkness.

As we begin this THIRD week of our Lenten journey, I remind everyone to please partake of the LENTEN SERVICES which are offered weekly on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Below are this week's upcoming services at Holy Trinity and/or Prophet Elias:

MONDAY, MARCH 9: Great Compline, 6:00pm, at Holy Trinity only;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11: Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts, 9:00am, at Prophet Elias only;

FRIDAY, MARCH 13: 3rd Salutations to the Theotokos, 6:30pm, at both churches

TODAY IS GODPARENT SUNDAY AT PROPHET ELIAS

A very warm welcome to ALL GODPARENTS and their GODCHILDREN who are worshipping today at Prophet Elias! It is with joy that we honor today this sacred relationship. By doing this, our community calls to mind the importance of this bond in Christ and encourages the relationship between Godparents and their Godchildren.

PLEASE SEE ME FOR HOLY CONFESSION!

Saint John Climacus tells us not to be surprised that we fall every day. We should not give up, but stand courageously. And assuredly, the angel who guards us will honor our patience. While a wound is still fresh and warm, it is easy to heal; but old, neglected and festering ones are hard to cure, and require for their care much treatment. Many from long neglect become incurable, but with God all things are possible. So let us purify our hearts, sanctify our souls, and trample down all vices through the Sacrament of Holy Confession. Please call me as soon as possible to arrange a time for Confession!

SATURDAY OF LAZARUS LENTEN RETREAT

This year, we will not have a Holy Friday Youth Retreat. INSTEAD, we will offer a SATURDAY OF LAZARUS LENTEN RETREAT on Saturday, April 4 at Prophet Elias beginning around 11am. Parents, please plan to bring your children following Divine Liturgy on this day! If you would like to assist in the planning of our retreat, please let me know by calling me on my cell phone (556-1139).

Our TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY will be held this Tuesday, March 10, at 10:30am, at the Little America Coffee Shop. We have had wonderful participation and I warmly encourage our faithful to attend!

If you would like to receive my bi-weekly FEED MY SHEEP e-message, and/or if you would also like to receive my bi-monthly CROSS+WALK newsletter (this can be emailed or mailed), you may call, text, or write me at 801-556-1139 or matthewthepriest@gmail.com.

Humblly in Christ,
Fr. Matthew

Youth Group Events

My Dear Beloved Youth,

On the Second Sunday of Great Lent we commemorate St. Gregory Palamas and it affords us the opportunity to examine ourselves and our spiritual existence in this world through his example. The example that St. Gregory of Palamas gives us was that of his own real interest that lay only with the things of God. The holy activity of prayer he had put into practice since childhood and the fundamental virtues of obedience, humility, meekness, fasting, vigil and the different kinds of renunciation that make the body subject to the spirit are virtues we should try to emulate.

In our self-examination during this Holy Lenten Season, we need to focus on and turn to Christ and turn away from those things in our life that may separate and distance us from Christ. Through prayer we can facilitate this change and grow spiritually in our faith. As we grow spiritually in our faith we begin to also change inwardly and our hearts begin to change and grow as well. Like the Prodigal Son who has wandered far away from his homeland and then realizes his error returns home again. Let our prayer rekindle the love we should show to all to help those in need, forgive those who may have wronged us, love those who may hate us and grow in the grace of Christ. If I may let me quote from the prayer that is read during the Divine Liturgy to help us prepare before beginning any prayer through prayer. "Shine in our hearts, O loving Master, the pure light of Your divine knowledge and open the eyes of our mind to understand the proclamations of your Gospel. Instill within us fear of Your blessed commandments, so that trampling down all fleshly desires we may lead a spiritual life thinking and doing everything with a view to pleasing You...."

Let this Lenten Season be a beginning in learning to love prayer and conversing with our Lord. Let us build within us the Kingdom of God and let our love and joy in our Lord and His Holy Resurrection shine and grow brightly every day of our lives. Wishing you a continued Holy and Blessed Lenten journey.

In His Love,

+fr. elias

Hellenic Cuisine Academy

Hellenic Cuisine Academy had a successful 5th year celebration with a sold out cooking demonstration and dinner with guest chef, Stephanie Patsalis. The Hellenic Cultural Association thanks the community for their continued support.

Dear Parishioners,

Enclosed is a current list of stewards for the 2015 year. If your name is not on this list and you have made a stewardship commitment, please contact the church office at 801-328-9681. If you have not made a stewardship commitment, please do your part to help in the financial ministry of our community and our Orthodox Church. Our parish has many expenses and the help of everyone is required to keep us a vibrant community and to help spread Orthodoxy.

A steward is someone who has been entrusted with another's property and charged with the responsibility of managing it in the owner's best interest. So for us, stewardship is the act of lovingly returning to God a portion of His many gifts with which He has blessed each of us. Stewardship is a ministry that enables us to respond to Christ's love by perpetuating His Church's mission. Our giving of time, talent and treasure enables our parish to do Christ's work here on Earth through our many ministries, services and outreach programs.

If you haven't already, please make your stewardship commitment today or, if possible, increase your commitment with thanks to God.

Stewardship payments can be made on our website at gocslc.org, the Narthex, or the church office.

In His Name and Service

The Parish Council & Stewardship Committee
