

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 5:1-10

BRETHREN, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us. While we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Why, one will hardly die for a righteous man -- though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die. But God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we are now justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of Matthew 6:22-33

The Lord said, "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light; but if your eye is not sound, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat or what you shall drink, nor about your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O men of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the Gentiles seek all these things; and your heavenly Father knows you need them all. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well."

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

MAY GOD BLESS OUR FATHERS ... Just as we honor our mothers, we, too, honor our beloved FATHERS for their diligent and hard work in rearing their families. According to Saint Clement, "Those who have devoted themselves to the Almighty Father have proved to be good parents to their children. Those who know the Son are good parents to their sons and daughters. Those who remember the Bridegroom – Christ – are good husbands to their wives."

WATER THE TREE Saint Kosmas Aitolos, who reposed in the 1700s, offers the following spiritual insight to parents: "As soon as you cut a tree down, the branches go dry forthwith, but as soon as you water the root, the branches refresh. Likewise, you parents are like the tree. When the father and the mother – you who are the root of the children – are 'watered' by fasting, prayers, almsgiving, and good deeds, God safeguards your children. Once you, the parents, dry out through sin, God deadens your children and puts you into hell with them. If an apple tree brings forth sour apples, we blame the tree not the apples. So, you parents who are the apple tree, do well that the apples also become sweet."

AS WE ENTER THE CHURCH During the sacred services of our Holy Orthodox Church, we should not engage in idle and unnecessary conversation in the narthex of the church. The entrance into an Orthodox church is always from the west, the church itself being turned with its main part towards the east, in token that the worshippers enter from the darkness of impiety into the light of truth. Thus, entering the church, Orthodox Christians assemble to offer up to God their common prayers, and to receive from Him His grace through the Holy Sacraments.

Our TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY will meet this Tuesday, June 23 in the Little America Coffee Shop. We warmly welcome your participation.

Next SUNDAY, JUNE 28, Orthros and Divine Liturgy will be celebrated at Holy Trinity only. There will be no services at Prophet Elias on this day. However, for those participants attending the Cretan Convention, Divine Liturgy only (no Orthros) will be offered at the Canyons Resort in Park City at 9:30am if you should wish to attend the service there.

Humbly in Christ,
Father Matthew
