

Epistle Reading St. Paul's Letter to the Romans 6:18-23

BRETHREN, having been set free from sin, you have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once yielded your members to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now yield your members to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. But then what return did you get from the things of which you are now ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the return you get is sanctification and its end, eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Reading The Gospel of Matthew 8:5-13

At that time, as Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, beseeching him and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, in terrible distress." And he said to him, "I will come and heal him." But the centurion answered him, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it." When Jesus heard him, he marveled, and said to those who followed him, "Truly, I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith. I tell you, many will come from east and west and sit at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth." And to the centurion Jesus said, "Go; be it done for you as you have believed." And the servant was healed at that very moment.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES FROM FATHER MATTHEW

1) ***As I continue to transition into my role as the canonical Head (Senior) Priest of the entire parish, I am reviewing and assessing at length the spiritual needs of the parish faithful. I ask for your prayers and your patience as I do this; such a careful and diligent assessment takes time as well as prayer in seeking God's will for His flock entrusted to my care. Toward the end of summer, I will inaugurate regular communication with you, the parish faithful. For I believe that the priest's relations with his parishioners must have as a starting point, the awareness of his priestly responsibility and his disposition and willingness to serve the needs of all his parish faithful everywhere and at all times.***

2) SERVICES for the Feast of PROPHET ELIAS – which is also the parish FEASTDAY of our Prophet Elias Church – will take place at PROPHET ELIAS ONLY on Sunday, July 20, so that all our parish faithful can come together in worship and celebration. As a result, there will be NO Divine Liturgy at Holy Trinity on this day so that we may worship together at Prophet Elias only.

LITURGICAL SCHEDULE FOR THE FEAST OF PROPHET ELIAS

Saturday evening, July 19: Great Vespers with Artoklasia, 5pm, at Prophet Elias ONLY;

Sunday, July 20: Feastday of Prophet Elias, Orthros and Divine Liturgy, beginning at 8:30am at Prophet Elias ONLY
