

Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians 2:16-20

BRETHREN, you know that a man is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of the law, because by works of the law shall no one be justified. But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were found to be sinners, is Christ then an agent of sin? Certainly not! But if I build up again those things which I tore down, then I prove myself a transgressor. For I through the law died to the law, that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me; and the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Gospel Reading

The Gospel of John 19:6-11, 13-20, 25-28, 30

The Lord said: "If anyone wishes to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it; and whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? For what can a man give in return for his life? For whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of man also be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels." And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power."

IOCC UPDATE ON CRISIS IN SYRIA

The International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC) is a 501c(3) organization that provides humanitarian aid and emergency disaster relief worldwide. The IOCC is reaching out to parishes across the country to provide help in providing emergency assistance to families in war torn Syria. As a service project for our Sunday School children, we are organizing the assembly of much needed Emergency Back to School kits and Emergency Hygiene kits. These kits will provide basic necessities that displaced families and children so desperately need.

On Sunday, September 21st, 2014 there will be a Back To Sunday School Appreciation Picnic held at the Prophet Elias pavillion immediately following Sunday School at 12:30pm. We will have a table set-up and staffed with Emergency Kits on display and will have a donation basket available for donations to pay for the supplies we need to build the kits. Please consider this prayfully and give from your heart to help our kids with this worthy service project.

"For I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me." Matthew 25:35-36

Please contact Terry Theodorou at Terry@BestBBQSpices.com with any questions. Thank you!

SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATE...

A very warm WELCOME today to all families as we begin our FIRST DAY of Sunday School and as we also come together today at 12:30pm at the Prophet Elias Pavilion for our WELCOME BACK PICNIC CELEBRATION! A special THANK YOU to all who continue to come forward to assist in our SUNDAY SCHOOL PROGRAMS! I am very pleased to announce that Elenie Sefandonakis has graciously come forward to help oversee our parish Sunday School program together with Paul Karahalios. If you are interested in teaching SUNDAY SCHOOL at either church this year, I encourage you to please contact Elenie (718-7515 or elenie@merrickbank.com or eleniesefandonakis@yahoo.com), or Paul (870-1514 or paulk2p@aol.com), or me (556-1139 or matthewthepriest@gmail.com) at your earliest convenience. I also am working to establish a QUARTERLY SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER with the first issue available in mid-Fall.

ORTHODOX WOMEN STRONG –A GATHERING OF WOMEN...

I am pleased to announce the formation of a WOMEN'S GROUP, a coming together of women of all ages, sharing their unique struggles and joys as they aim to live their Orthodox faith every day, in every situation. Led by Presbytera Denise, it will be offered quarterly, and then more frequently as the group grows. The date for the first gathering will be Saturday, October 4 from 11am-noon in the Prophet Elias Small Gym. Having reared six children, Presbytera Denise absolutely encourages women of ALL ages to attend, even our younger mothers with children! So please feel free to bring your young children, toys and all!

LOOKING AHEAD -- OUR TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY....

For those who have always been interested in studying the BOOK OF REVELATION, our Tuesday Morning Bible Study Group, which meets at the Little America lobby at 10:30am, will begin the study of Revelation on Tuesday, October 28. I am now accepting pre-orders of the study book we will use -- "The Apocalypse of Saint John" by Lawrence R. Farley. The author demonstrates that the most important lesson we can learn from Revelation today is the need to remain faithful in a time of widespread hostility to the Christian faith. In the meantime, we will continue to study the Acts of the Apostles through the third week in October. Please join us!

Humbly in Christ, Father Matthew
